__12

Held, Was Natural.

Physicians and Nurses Will opened their cell to give them their Testify There Were No Symptoms of Poisoning.

The arrest of Mrs. Leopold Wallau poisoning her mother, Mrs. Ida Binge, has aroused a storm about the Dis-

Mr. Jerome, acting upon a repor of. Witthaus that he had found quantities of mercury in the stomach of Mrs. Binge, concluded the evidence warranted Mrs. Wallau's arrest and she defease is in charge of Edward Lauterof the case against Mrs. Wallau rests upon statements made by two trained murses who were discharged from at tendance upon Mrs. Binge for negli-

The most important witness to estab lish that Mrs. Wallau did not poisor her mother is Dr. Abraham Jacobi an of the medical staff of Mt. Sina

Mrs. Bloge by Mrs. Wallau a 'short time before the death of the old lady. His examination, he is prepared to tell the Coroner, revealed that Mrs. Hinge was suffering from heart disease, pyorrhea, a disease of the mouth, teeth and gums, a cancerous growth in the eye socket and bladder and kidney dislau that the case was hopeless.

The two trained nurses who attended Mrs. Binge in her last iliness are prepared to swear that there was no salivation such as is sesociated with and no abdominal pains.

Most astonishing or all things in con nection with the charge that Mrs. Wailau killed her mother is the fact that Mrs. Binge could have lived only a very Mrs. Binge could have lived only a very few weeks.

Bbe had been an invalid for years.
Cancer was slowly nut certainly andermining her existence. Her waking hours were hours of suffering.

"Mrs. Binge," said a friend of the Wallau family to-day, "was in continued pain She kinds that the end was approximing, hight it not be reasonable to lingine a case similar to this?

"An aged mother is dving of an in-somble to imagine a case similar to this?

"An aged mother is dying of an insurable disease. Her condition—and sufferings are such as to arouse the deepest sympathy and pity, even from strangers. Would it be wrong for one who loved this aged woman to hasten the linevitable end purely from motives of mercy?"

Among the afflavits in the District-Atloreny a possession in the Wallau case are several from servants and others concerning conversations heard in the home of the Wallaus and Mrs. Bings at No. 63 Fast Fighter attreet for the servants and others concerning conversations heard in the home of the Wallaus and Mrs. Bings's death. One of these affidavits perfect that Mrs. Wallau was tired of home life.

Some of Servants' Gossip.

the wanted her husband to kive up the house and enkage rooms in one the house and engage rooms in one of the large more an extended trip. The District-Attorney's informants alter a strength of the care of her mother kept her locked up like a hermit.

"I am not going to wante the best years of my life, she is declared to have announced." As noon as she dies I am; going to Europe or else live in a hotel." Traces of mercury in the internal organs of Mrs. Binge were discovered late Saturday affor organs of Mrs. Bings were discovered late Saturday after son.

The arrest was made close to midnight Saturday after Mrs. Wallau had retired, Mrs. Wallau and his son Alexander made strendous objections, and were really more exercised than the risoner. Edward Lauterbach was sent for and accompanied Mrs. Wallau, her husband, her son and the two quinty detectives to the Mulberry street police station. They rode downtown in a patrol wason. Mr. Lauterbach took occasion to-day to complain of the Mr. Laurebach took eccusion to-day to complain of the manner in which Mrs. Wallau was arrested. He denounced it as an outrage.

It was bearned to-day that Mrs. Bage left a will She bequeathed her entire fortune, in real estate, bonds mortgages and securities to Mrs. Wallau

DRAGGED LITTLE GIRL FROM FRONT OF CAR.

Little Dora Shep, nine years old, whose carents live at Second avenue and Elanty-second street was returning from the corner grocery store with a Durentse to-day vinen she stopped in the middle of Second avenue, beriffing by the sight of a car approaching from either directles.

J. A. Abrahams, of No. 105 East Four-teenth a free was waiting for a porther teenth a free was waiting for a porther beand car and selzing the little girl, he drawred her from the track just as the fooder caught her skirt, ripping it from her body.

A. crowd surrounded the materman. A crowd surrounded the historman, who was forced to put speed on to get

GET AWAY FROM

Overpower the Doorman Jury Finds in Ethel Walker Lost $350,000 in Who Served Breakfast Levey's Favor—Says She and Reach Street Safely.

contain detectives and policemen at all hours of the day and night, slumber deplair this morning to do her turn on the wilness stand, and will return in time for the cycning performance at a philadelphia, house, and will return in the wilness stand, and will return in time for the exching performance at a philadelphia, house, and will return in the wilness stand, and will return in time for the exching performance at a philadelphia, house, and the charge that he wife suit denying the copyen on walker have left though he had filed an answer to his wife's suit denying the copyen market and in wildcat specialation in Wali sireét.

The men who successfully played the deorge that he wife suit denying the copyen market and in wildcat specialation in Wali sireét.

The men who successfully played the clery. The men who successfully played the wife's suit denying the copyen market and in wildcat specialation in Wali sireét.

The men who successfully played the clery. Their names are known at the clity. The remaining money was lost playing the copper market and in wildcat specialation in Wali street.

The men who successfully played the clery. The manner are known at the clity. The remaining money was lost playing the copper market and in wildcat specialation in Wali street.

The men who successfully played the clery. The money was lost playing the copper market and in wildcat specialation in Wali street.

The men who successfully played the clery. The manner are known at the clity. The money was lost playing the copper market and in wildcat specialation in Wali street. hours of the day and night, slumber must have been so heavy upon the early NO MOTIVE FOR CRIME transic wies of Henry Burden, the venerable doorman, who was beaten down the

The swo prisoners who attacked Bur-Henry Allen, alias Vance, and Henry Lewis; alias Miller, With thirteen other prisoners, they were arrested on Jan. 15 charged with participating in the wholesale trunk thefts that have recently stirred up all the railroads in the and exclusive uptown East. The fifteen were stowed away in Jewish society circles on a charge of the fourteen cells in Police Headquarters to await the arrival of requisition papers from Richmond, Va., where they are to be prosecuted for the theft of many trunks. As there were not enough cells to go round Allen and Lewis were key duty at No. 300 Mulberry, street for is now in the Tombs, held without ball, twenty years. He is sixty years old It is exclusively the District-Attorney's and in figure bears a striking resem case. The Police Department has not blance to a squat wine cask. Yet with all his weight of years and fiesh he is doubled up in one heavily-barred com

Mrs. Wallau is the sole heiress of her mother, who, as the widow of Julius Binge, well-known broker and trayload of food to their cell Allen had fattened himself against the wall inside the door. Burden couldn't see him, and when he opened the door with one hand, an importer of bronze powders, is a millionaire.

Mrs. Wallau has been for years a leader in charitable work in Harlem. It is no wonder that her arrest has created a furore.

The Evening World learns that active work has already been done in the direction of trying to show at the inquest, te be held Wednesday, that Mrs. Binge died from natural causes. The defense is in charge of Edward Lauterbach. He holds that the sole basis chase. His small less, the stone flag-plano fashion, flew along the stone flag-ging of the hallways, and his voice echoed thunderously in his vain calls for He reached the stairs leading up to the basement from the street only a dozen

Full-Length Winter Coats

BED, with heavy

continuous posts

(like illustration); fancy

well constructed

price, all sizes,

WEST

Great Sale of Girls'

Girls' $1.50 Dresses at 79c.

firs' Dresses made of woven chambray or fancy check gingham; Jumper of Russian style box pleated waist, trimmed with embroldery and finished with fancy braid, pleated or full skirt, with deep hem; blue, red, tan and fancy check; sizes 6 to 14; value $1.50, at.

Black Silk Jumpers.

Have full blouse, tailor

GETS DIVORCE FROM G. M. COHAN IN TEN MINUTES

Doesn't Intend to Wed.

visited a wonish in Chicago last September. He was represented by David Gerber, who called no witnesses in his behalf.

Ethel Levey testified that she and Mr. Copan were married at Atlantic City, July 10, 1899, and have one child. Then her lawyer, W. S. Haskell, read the deposition of George Silver, E. J. Walson and Frank C. Amberg, three Chicago theatrical med, who went with Cohan on his visit to this unnamed woman, and then the jury found a verdict in favor of the wife. The trial, exclusive of calling the jury, occupied less than ten minutes. less than len minutes.

Miss Levey denied that she was going to marry Robert Edeson, as has been reported, and added, "Nor any one else. I've had enough."

feet behind the escaping thieves. But on the threshold he paused, for the two men separated, one flying toward Houston street and the other sprinting for Bleecker street. Aften chose the direction of Bleecker street, and as Burden had had him under him for several influes, hadden for him for several influes, hadden for capturing him. He stripped off his coat and hat and pounded along with every muscle bent in the fight. Aften had a good start but the lee and snow proved a serious hit didnay. He had a good start but the lee and snow proved a serious hit didnay. He had to prove a serious hit didnay, he shall be had to the pavement. In a few seconds he was still flatter with the "D pounds of the doorman upon him. He was dragged back to like cell in a limp and helpess condition.

Miller made good his escape and a general alarm has been sent out for him. The struggle and escape lasted through almost twenty minutes, yet none of the many policemen and detectives in the building awakened until too late.

In a few seconds he was still flatter with the "D pounds of the doorman upon him. He was dragged back to like cell in a limp and helpless condition.

Miller made good his escape and a general alarm has been sent out for him. The struggle and escape lasted through almost twenty minutes, yet none of the many policemen and detectives in the building awakened until too late.

In a few seconds he was still flatter with the "D pounds of the doorman upon him. He was dragged back to like cell in a limp and helpless condition.

Miller made good his escape and a general alarm has been sent out for him. The struggle and escape lasted through almost twenty minutes, yet none of the many policemen and detectives in the building awakened until too late.

In a few seconds he was still flatter with the "D pounds of the doorman upon him. He was dragged back to like cell in a limp and helpless condition.

Miller made good his escape and a general of the town the flat he formerly ran a restrict of the town the flat he formerly ran a pooli

Girls' Long Winter Coats.

Special Sale of Fine White Lawn Waists.

A Most Remarkable Saving and a Large Assortment.

trimmed sleeves and tucked stock.....

Yard-wide Silk Pongee, bright and silky-shown in Light Blue, Pink, Champagne, Pearl Gray, Cadet Blue, Reseda Green, Navy Blue, White, Cream and Black.

Worth 59c.; special at

27-inch rough Shantung Tussah Silk Pongee; shown 43-INCH BLACK SILK SELVEDGE FRENCH in light blue, pink, pearl gray, lilac, champagne, Alice blue, brown, gin metal gray, garnet, navy blue, white, 59c metal gray, garnet, navy blue, garnet, g wo Important Specials in Iron Beds.

Felt Mattress Genuine felt, made in layers and closely tufted. Regular $10.00 mattress. 5.00

In all sizes, at.....

all sizes, exactly like illustration,

massive post and cast corners, a very strong, ser-

worth $6.75; special, in all sizes,

bed,

viceable

Made from fine quality white Persian lawn; made, full blouse, tucked and trimmed with fine openwork embroidery, in Val. lace, in assorted patterns, have pleated back, fancy

$2 Brilliantine Waists, 98c. Made from fine quality brilliantine, full blouse, tucked or box pleated and buttoned trimmed pleated backs, full steeve, tucked cuff and 98c

VOILE, value $1.69; special at.....

Fastest Browing Store

TO SWINDLERS C

Wire - Tapping Game, Rest in Bucketshop.

Declare Woman's Death, the first affair of the kind in the surposed to the bull the surposed to the surposed t formant, Waiker told the swindlers that unless he made up his losses in Wall street and on the first wire-tapping operation he would commit suicide. This was more than three weeks ago. Counsel for the Savings Bank of Ne vate detectives are on the trial of Restaurant.

Eighth Floor, New Building.

We offer better

nenu than ever

rable d'Hote

Skirt Special! $10 Taffeta Silk Accordion Plaited Sunburst Skirts, Tuesday's Piquant New Offering! A skirt that is a positive wonder at the price—with a hang that is the hall-Chiffon Taffeta Silk. Dainty in Design, Full Flaring Sweep. Exquisitely sich in material-pos i ble at this price only because of an unusually large purchase. An appropriate skirt to wear all season my and afte noon. Closely accordion plaited. Positively a $10 value. Alterations FREE-Mall Orders Filled. SALE AT ALL THREE STORES. 10616West 14th Street 2 NEW YORK 4604462 Fulton Street 56651 Broad Street

JAMES McGREERY & GO.

23rd Street.

34th Street:

HOUSE GOWNS. In Both Stores.

Challie and Albatross House Gowns. 6.50, 9.50 and 11.00 value 8.00 to 12.57

Ladies' Silk House Gowns. Trimmed with lace. Loose or fitted models.

9.50 and 13.50 value 12.00 to 20.00

Imported Japanese, hand-embroidered, House Gowns. Colors:-pink, red, pale blue, navy blue and white. 15.00

FEATHER BOAS. In Both Stores.

Marabout Boas. Natural color.

3.75, 5.75 and 7.75 value 4.75 to 10.75

Coque Feather Collars with velvet

The latest Parisian Novelties in Boas and Collars. 6.75 to 25.00

CORSETS. In Both Stores.

All Corsets carefully fitted.

Augustine Corsets, made of fine Imported Coutil. New model with high bust and long close fitting hips. Front and side supporters attached. usual price 3.00

Augustine Corsets, made of fine Imported Coutil. Medium high bust and dip hips for average figures. Daintily finished.

Augustine Corsets. New model especially designed for well developed figures. Medium bust and long hips. Supporters attached. Made of fine Imported Coutil.

La Vida Corsets. New Spring models for every type of figure. For well developed figures a model is designed with high back and extra long over the hips and back. For average figures, high, narrow, close fitting bust and slender, graceful hips and tapering waist line, giving a youthful appearance to the figure. High bust and medium length hips for slender figures. Filled with real whalebone. Made of fine Coutil, Batiste and fancy Silk Broche. 3.00 to 35.00

JAMES McGREERY & CO.

23rd Street. 34th Street.

SUNDAY WORLD WANTS WORK

MONDAY MORNING WONDERS.

usual price 4.00

JAMES McGREERY & CO.

23rd Street.

34th Street

SILK DEPARTMENTS. In Both Stores,

Exhibition of Silks for Spring 1907. Novelties from the leading manufacturers of Europe and America woven exclusively for James McCreery & Co. Mousseline Perle a la Pompadour, Kashmyr Paisley Bordure, Chiffon Metallique, Eyelet Pongee, Pekin striped Radiance.

On Tuesday, February the 19th.

An extensive collection of shower! proof Printed Foulards.

75c and 1.00 per yard

Natural Shantung Silk. Shower proof. Suitable for automobile coats and travelling dress. 32 inches wide.

95c per yard

WASHABLE DRESS FABRICS. In Both Stores. On Tuesday, February the 19th.

> Pure French Dress Linen. Thoroughly shrunk. Colors:-white, pink, reseda, heliotrope, French gray, cadet and "Alice" blue. 47 inches wide.

48c per yard

Sheer, white English Batiste-cushion dot embroidered or open-work patterns. Suitable for Waists and Children's Dresses. 30 inches wide. 38c per yard

White lingerie Union Linen. 36 inches wide. 25c per yard

Fine, sheer white Batiste. 38 inches

TOILET ARTICLES. In Both Stores.

1,500 Imported, solid back, Hair Brushes. 11, 13 and 15 rows genuine

Fox, olive and ebony back, Cloth and Militaire Brushes.

Shaving Brushes with genuine badger and bristles.

value 1.50 to 2.00 Bone Nail Brushes, 8 and 10 rows.

5,000 Tooth Brushes. Antiseptic and various styles. 4 and 5 rows.

6 inch Chamois Polishers value 75c White Castile Soap. 4 pound bars. 45c per bar

Staple Creams, Soaps, Tooth Washes, Toilet and Tooth Powders, etc., considerably below former prices.

ART DEPARTMENTS. In Both Stores.

An extensive variety of stamped Lineus in the latest designs for eyelet, shadow, French, Wallachian and Bedemier embroidery.

On Tuesday, February the 10th.

STAMPED PATTERNS.

On fine linen. On fine nainsook. Drawers55

Hemstitched linen Scarfs, Lunch Cloths and Centre Pieces with Drawnwork border.

Scarfs. 18 x 50 inches.....50c and 60c value 1.00 to 1.50

Lunch Cloths. 30 x 30 inches. 50c and 60c value 1.00 to 1.50 Centre Pieces.

18 x 18 inches..... 25c 20 x 20 inches 35c value 50c to 1.00

Embroidery Silk, Hoops, Cottons, Wools, Knitting Needles, Hooks, etc.

34th Street. 23rd Street.